LITTELLL'S LIVING AGE. In 1880 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its thirty-seventh year, admittedly unrivaling and continu-ously successful. During the year it will rurnish to its readers the productions of the most eminent authors ABOVE NAMED AND MANY OTHERS: em bracing the choicest Serial and Short Stories by the LEADING FOREIGN NOVELISTS, and an amount

UNAPPROACHED BY ANY OTHER PERIODI-CAL in the world, of the most valuable Literary and Scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the FORE MOST ESSAYISTS, SCIENTISTS, CRITICS. DISCOV. ERERS, and EDITORS, representing every department of Knowledge and Progress.

THE LIVING AGE is a weekly magazine giving

THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshmess, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays. Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the contire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

It is therefore invaluable to every American reader as the only satisfactorily fresh and COMPLETE compilation of an indispensable current therature—indispensable because it embraces the productions of the ABLEST LIVING WRITERS. "The last volume of THE LIVING AGE presents a fresh example of the judgment in selection and adaptation to the demands of the best popular literature, which have secured so wide a circulation to that periodical."—New York Tribune.
